Nomination Rationale

& Call For Your Support in Cumulative Voting (Taiwan Regulation)

With 1% shareholding & 7 seats up for election:
More than 14% is required to gain 1 seat.
(13% more support still required to contest for a single seat)

Strategically, our 4 nominations:

- Provides shareholders with a broader slate of candidates to consider.
- Relative dilution in company-aligned votes increase chances for 1 seat.

Therefore:

For NED Candidate,
please support ONLY:

Allen Wang

For INEDs, please support
ALL of INED candidates:

Chinese State-owned Agencies-related Concerns Are Completely Unfounded

Shareholder identities are verified and due diligence is performed upon proposal submission.

Regulatory due diligence by the FSC have affirmed our standing for the 2023 Catcher AGM.

FOR THE 2025 AGM NOMINATIONS

Catcher has, once again, brought the Chinese State-owned-related concerns to the attention of the FSC. We have already furnished identical supporting materials as those submitted two years ago.

Catcher's Allegation Illegal Wrongdoing Through Local Proxy Channels - Misleading

With two local proxy channel vendors signed, we aim to:

Appeal to retail investors who align with our management philosophy and see merit in our candidate expertise.

NOT to gain votes via purchases or other material means.

With this proxy contest as an example:

We hope to increase the Taiwanese retail literacy and hopefully improve the overall awareness regarding shareholder rights.

Catcher is in Dire Need of Oversight:

- Damaged Shareholder Rights
- Insider Trading Controversy
- Board is Comprised of Siblings and Close Associates
- One-man Company
- Family Controls Over 100 Billion

The Only Chance for Catcher Oversight:

Support ONLY Our Candidates and None of the Company's

Due to having only 1% shareholding, with an addition 13% needed to gain one seat.

TIH is a SGX listed company and is highly regulated and will not purchase proxy votes.
